

Career Focus Internship Program

Hire skilled youth at half the price!

Are you looking to hire skilled, career-focused youth?

Are you willing to mentor these employees and invest in their future?

Alberta Community & Co-operative Association has received a Career Focus Internship grant from Service Canada. We are currently seeking Expressions of Interest from Organizations (co-operatives and non co-operatives) to become Hosts for our Career Focus Internship Program.

What you get:

- A salary supplemented youth intern for 12 weeks
- A skilled and enthusiastic person to complete special projects that you might have put on hold
- The opportunity to assist with the career development and co-op knowledge of a young person through mentoring and guidance

What ACCA provides:

- $9.40 per hour salary subsidy through Service Canada grant
- Pre-screening of youth applicants
- Two-day orientation and co-op and career development training workshop for interns
- Ongoing administrative and trouble-shooting support

What Hosts provide:

- The prevailing wage for the occupation (+ benefits) salary subsidy
- In-kind HR support
- Mentorship and support to youth interns
- The consideration of the intern to be hired after the internship is completed
- Expose youth to the operations, management and principles of business
- Help the interns gain an understanding of the role in which community-based organizations play in community economic development
