

Membership Application

Thank you for taking an interest in joining the Alberta Community and Co-operative Association (ACCA). Applications for membership are reviewed by our Board of Directors. As a member organization, this form also provides our staff with the necessary information to keep you up to date on ACCA activities, opportunities to get involved, and information that could be shared on our website as part of our member directory. This membership application form also lets us assess how we can best support your organization.

The ACCA meets the needs of its members through its strategic objectives:

- Being financially sustainable
- Foster co-operative awareness and relationships
- Facilitate the growth and development of member co-operatives
- Build and maintain a respected identity

Alberta's co-operative movement has deep roots and a bright future. We look forward to having you join our association as a member. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the ACCA.
